

New York Palace Hotel*****

The New York Palace is an elegant and charming property which brings luxury and culture in the heart of Budapest. The Hotel can be found in the heart of Budapest on the Elisabeth Ring-road. Contemporary New York Palace is the rethinking of the original edifice built in 1894 by the creative ideas of Maurizio Papiri and Ádám Tihanyi D. The building has an eclectic style relying on the Italian renaissance however modern contemporary interior design has gained ground in the formation of inner spaces creating one of the most dignified hotels within the Boscolo Group.

The most accented part of the impressive building is the ground floor Café with its 16 devilish fauns and – El Ashmodai the ancient figure of coffee and meditation – holding the lantern in such style and propagating the spirituality of the New York Café.
